The hour for the order of the day arrived—viz: Missionary Day. Bishop Keener made a stirring address on the duty of the church to the cause of Missions, in view of the grand openings of Providence. He read a concurrent appeal in a letter he had just received from Bishop Geo. F. Pierce. At the request of Bishop Keener, Rev. M. L. Wood, formerly a Missionary to China, arose and gave his unqualified endorsement to Dr. Allen's great enterprise in China.

The Bishop was followed by Dr. Young, Missionary Secretary, on the same subject. Dr. Young proceeded to raise the Missionary collection for the Anglo-Chinese College.

MISSIONARY ANNIVERSARY.

The Conference Missionary Anniversary was held Saturday night in Metropolitan Hall, Rev. T. W. Guthrie presiding. The Secretary, Rev. A. R. Raven, presented his Annual Report, as follows:

REPORT OF BOARD OF MISSIONS. NO. 1.

Nineteen Missions in the bounds of this Conference have been provided with the Gospel during the past year. All but one of them (Hunting Creek) have been reported to this Board. On most of these fields we notice evidences of improvement, while some have made most encouraging progress toward becoming self supporting charges.

Every mission field in our bounds has passed under as careful a review by this Board as the reports of the Missionaries and other sources of information at our command would allow. The result is we have felt justified in recommending the discontinuance of only one, viz: Calvary Mission, in Charlotte,—believing that it ought to be and is self-sustaining. There are several other Missions which show hopeful signs of an early development into good self-supporting circuits. That our people may the better appreciate the work of home evangelization and be constrained to contribute more liberally to this great work, we submit a few facts—out of many which might be given—for their consideration: In 1877-9 this Board appropriated the sum of $200.00 toward the support of Drowning Creek or White Sulphur Mission. A Society was organized, and 69 members were soon added by profession of faith; a good church was built, valued at $1200, which has since been attached to an adjoining Circuit, and now pays annually its quota of $100 towards the support of the pastor. Several new churches have also been built on some of our Mission fields during the past year, and several more are now being projected; “the poor”—who were unable to support a pastor unaided—“have had the Gospel preached unto them;” and, best of all, hundreds of souls have made profession of faith in Christ, and a good per cent of that number have been received into our church.

But, the full results, even here, of the labors of our faithful Missionaries cannot be estimated. What the Earl of Shaftsbury said of the London City Mission, that it was an instrumentality without which London would have become a den of horrors, an abode of wild beasts, may be as truly applied to some of the dark places cultivated by our Missionaries; but which, under the blessing of heaven upon their labors, are beginning to “bloom and blossom as the rose.”

Several new and destitute regions have this year called upon our Board for the Gospel, and have been organized into Mission-fields for the coming year.

Help, brethren! help! And while we rejoice at the great door, which is now open to our church to the very heart of China's 450 millions, let us not forget the Greeks who are at our doors.

A. R. RAVEN, Secretary,
Conference Board Missions.

The Treasurer, Will. C. Doub, presented his report.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMOIRS.

Your Committee on Memoirs would respectfully report:

That during the past year seven of our brethren have gone to their reward. These all died in the faith. Their lives were pure. Their memories are precious.

They were men: and therefore none of them were absolutely faultless. They were subjects of Divine grace, and consecrated ministers of the Gospel, and therefore we may praise God as the author of their virtues and their works. Desiring not to try the needless task of eulogizing the dead, but wishing only to stimulate and encourage the living, and to magnify the name of Christ, we respectfully submit the following memoirs:

J. R. GRIFFITH, Chairman.

The following resolution of respect to the memory of Bishop Paine, was presented by Rev. F. H. Wood:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DIVISION OF CONFERENCE.

Whereas, upon examination of the law in the premises, we are satisfied that power to divide the Annual Conference is in the General Conference, the action of the General Conference of 1870 being limited to four years, therefore:

Resolved 1. That we deem it wise and proper to look forward to an arrangement for the division of our Conference at the next General Conference.

Resolved 2. That in our judgment it will be proper for the Annual Conference of 1884 to appoint a committee consisting of one minister and one layman from each presiding Elder's district, who shall propose a plan for the division of this Conference, to be sub mitted to the Annual Conference of 1835. So that such plan may, when acted upon, be presented to the General Conference of 1886.

C. M. PEPPER, Chairman.

Committee on District Conference Records, by their chairman, submitted the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DIS. CON. RECORDS.

Your Committee, to whom was referred the examination of the District Conference Records, for the year 1882, beg leave to submit the following report:

The journals of the Raleigh, Hillsboro, Greensboro, Salisbury, Statesville, Charlotte, Wilmington, New-Berne and Warrenton District Conferences, 9 in number, have been placed in our hands.

The Journals of the Shelby, Fayetteville and Washington District Conferences we have neither seen nor heard from.

We have patiently and carefully examined all in our possession, and are glad to say that the Records of the Raleigh, Hillsboro, Greensboro, Salisbury, Statesville, Charlotte, New-Berne and Warrenton District Conferences have been well kept and are in good condition; correct in form, complete in matter, recording everything that ought to be recorded and doing it in good plain English.

Too much cannot be said in praise of the admirable and almost perfect manner in which two or three of these Records have been kept.

We make the following criticisms on Records of the Wilmington District Conference: the form is irregular; the Record itself is meagre and unsatisfactory, not even giving the written report sent in by an absent pastor, and failing to record important facts and figures in the verbal reports of the pastors present.

We hope that in the future, all our Presiding Elders will have sufficient regard for the regulations of the Church, to see that the Journals of the District Conferences are faithfully kept and promptly presented at the Annual Conference as the law requires.

Respectfully submitted.

T. J. GATTIS, Chairman.

T. S. CAMPBELL.

JNO. H. BELL,

C. C. DODSON.

L. H. GIBBONS.

On motion of Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, the Bishop was requested to re-appoint A. W. Mangum, Professor in the University of North Carolina.

Rev. J. J. Renn, chairman of the Committee on Sabbath Schools made the following report, which was adopted as amended:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

Much zeal and interest are manifest, and much good is being done in the Sunday School work of our Conference; but we have not reached the measure of duty and achievement in this open and fruitful field. There has been in every stage of its progress a healthy expansion of the Sunday School idea. New helps, new methods, new elements have been developed. That which, a century ago, was an institution intended to teach the little children of the poor and ignorant people to read and write, is now a Bible, Christian School, exhaustless in its resources, unlimited in its plans, infinite in its rewards, and intended to embrace all classes and conditions of society. The Bible is its text-book, and it may be studied profitably in the Sunday School by the wise and the unwise, the old and the young, the rich and the poor, the righteous and the wicked.

We hold, therefore, that while the membership of the Church ought to embrace only converts to the faith, the Sunday School ought to take in everybody, and that its membership everywhere ought to be largely in excess of the church membership.

We greatly desire to see our people fully awake to the importance of this matter, and do earnestly recommend that our Pastors, Superintendents and Teachers labor to bring adults, as well as children, into the Sunday School. Let our people get above the idea that it is a place where only little children are gathered to recite the Catechism. Let them know what the Sunday School is, and what help it affords, and they will come in.

We hope that under the supervision of the Sunday School Board this very important branch of our Church work will soon be elevated to a higher plane of usefulness.

We submit the following resolutions:

1. That special attention be given to the instruction of our little children in singing, and in the Wesleyan Catechisms.
2. That Bible classes be organized in all our Schools for adults.—See Discipline on duties of pastors.
3. That our preachers use their influence to induce Superintendents to organize weekly Teachers' Meetings wherever it is at all practicable, and that the pastors attend the same as often as they can.
4. That our pastors give special attention to the appointment of Superintendents, and if possible secure young, pious, active, efficient men.
5. That our own Sunday School literature furnishes all needed helps to the study of the lessons; that we endorse and recommend it to all our Schools, and advise them to use no other.
6. That we nominate the following as the Sunday School Board, to hold office for four years, provided they are members of the Conference:

E. A. Yates, D. D., Jno. W. Hayes, V. A. Sharpe, W. F. Strowd, J. J. Renn, Prof. O. W. Carr, W. S. Creasy, R. R. Crawford, M. V. Sherrill, M. O. Sherrill, J. W. Jenkins, Dr. B. F. Dixon, W. S. Rene, Dr. T. C. Smith, J. W. North, D. D., Prof. W. C. Doub, W. I. Hull, W. J. Parker, L. S. Burkhead, D. D., W. F. Kornegay, W. L. Cunningham, E. A. Thorne, J. H. Cordon, J. F. Norman.

Respectfully submitted.

J. J. RENN, Chairman.

On motion of Rev. R. O. Burton, the Sunday School Board was requested to report to the Conference the time for holding a State Sunday School Convention.

A. R. RAVEN Secretary,
Conference Board Missions.

Rev. L. S. Burkhead offered the following relating to Trinity College, which was adopted as amended:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.—NO. 2.

TRINITY COLLEGE.—This, our cherished Institution of learning, that has sent out so many well trained young men to battle with the storms of life, and to work for God and humanity, has been suddenly bereft of its distinguished head, and made to pause in its career of usefulness. Dr. Braxton Craven, who was its very life and soul, was stricken down in a moment of time, and all stand and gaze and ask what was the indication of Providence intended by this startling event? The friends of the College, the Church, the whole State, join in solemn wonder at this dread mystery. He literally sacrificed his life to the cause of Christian Education. The College that he did so much to work up to a great success for the church and the world, is pressed down by a load of debt, that weighed upon his spirits and baffled his aims. The noblest monument to his name, that his brethren could erect; the sweetest memorial they could dedicate to his memory, would be, to lift all this load of debt; raise a handsome endowment for the College, and send it forward in its work of benefactions to the world. The Conference has done well in providing for a part of the indebtedness; and now we must lift the small amount not provided for and then make a bold strike for a good endowment. The Committee, therefore, recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That our people are earnestly called upon to rally to the support of Trinity College with their means and patronage in this sad hour of her bereavement, and we do most heartily recommend it to all our people.

Dr. Burkhead offered the following relating to Greensboro College, which was adopted :

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.—NO. 3.

GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE.—Whereas, Greensboro Female College, an Institution long cherished by our Conference and people for its noble work in the highest department of female culture, had become so burdened with debt, as to necessitate its sale by a decree of Court, which took place at public auction on the 5th day of June last; and

Whereas, Several gentlemen came forward on the day of sale, and purchased the same from the North Carolina Railroad authorities, at their own risk, and at the cost of $27,931.00 and have kept the Institution open, and have offered it to this Conference on the same terms on which it was purchased; therefore,

Resolved 1. That we tender the thanks of the Conference to the Greensboro Female College Association for purchasing and holding the Institution, and for the generous offer made to this body to redeem the College, and we deeply regret our inability to accept the proposition at present.

Resolved 2. That we are gratified to hear of the prosperous condition of the College under the new management, and with the assurance of the Association that they will continue to operate the College in the interest of Methodism, we hereby heartily recommend it to the patronage of our people.

Resolved 3. That we deeply deplore the fact that in consequence of the misfortune of the College in other years, a number of those who had long borne its financial burdens, and sacrificed much in its interest, sustained loss by reason of its sale.

Report by Dr. Burkhead, relating to Davenport College, was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.—NO 4.

DAVENPORT FEMALE COLLEGE.—Seven years ago, the buildings of this Institution were destroyed by fire, and since then, earnest efforts have been made to restore them; but the main building is still unfinished. A good school has been kept during the present year, under the management of Rev. G. F. Round, a member of this Conference, and arrangements are being made to keep up a school, that will meet the wants of the community, till means can be raised to finish the buildings and open again as a boarding school. This valuable property is estimated to be worth $10,000, and we heartily sympathize with the trustees in their efforts to restore Davenport Female College to its former usefulness.

L. S. BURKHEAD, Chairman.	} For Com.
W. C. DOUB, Secretary.

Rev. M. C. Thomas submitted the following report on the Bible Cause. Adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

We heartily acknowledge and accept the Bible as the only rule and the sufficient rule both of our faith and practice. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished into all good works.

One of the immortal sayings is that of the eloquent Chillingworth: "The Bible, the Bible, the Book of Protestants." It is not possible to adequately estimate its value and benefit to us individually for the life and immortality it reveals; for its exceeding great and precious promises, its comfort in sorrow, its support in trial, its hope in disappointment, its unerring guidance over the rough, crooked, dangerous paths of this eventful life. Controlled by its wholesome teaching, we shall, day by day, dwell in the secret place of the Most High and abide under the shadow of the Almighty, coming down to life's close with the blessed assurance of an entrance through the gates into a fullness of joy and pleasure forevermore just beyond Death's valley and shadow. Absent from the body present with the Lord.

Aptly and truly styled "the Keystone of all national greatness and true cultivation," wherever the Bible has been suppressed religion has degenerated into priestcraft, superstition has been rife, and under its blighting influence the intellectual and moral life of the nation has withered. But, on the other hand, wherever it has been freely circulated, it has made its own way, and accomplished its own work, as its Divine Author said it should—in the elevation of the people, the prosperity of the nation, the purity of the priest-hood, the stability of the Church, and in everything to make a country great and free.

As ministers of Jesus Christ we should so preach it as to be able to say with the chief of apostles: "I have not shunned to declare the whole counsel of God—not handling the word of God deceitfully; but, by manifestation of truth, commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God."

Binding the Bible to our hearts we unqualifiedly pronounce every form of opposition, that men may devise against it, vanity and lies.

Let everlasting glories crown the Book, which has God for its author, unadulterated truth for its matter, the salvation of the whole human race for its end, and whose circulation should be co-extensive with the great commission: "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature."

We deem it proper to quote from the report of Dr. C. H. Wiley, District Superintendent for the American Bible Society: "The work of supply by colporteurs of the Parent Society has been diligently and systematically pressed in the field, and there are now only two counties to be entered on in S. C., and eighteen in this State, and the work of supply is going on in 3 counties in S. C., and in 12 in N. C. The work will be finished in the coming year and will be the greatest and most thorough ever undertaken in this region, and will include the supply of some 30,000 families, or over 150,000 souls with the Holy Scriptures, and the distribution of nearly 200,000 volumes of the Divine Oracles. This grand enterprise should excite the gratitude of all who love the Kingdom of the Lord Jesus Christ, and makes a loud call on the Church for increased zeal in the support of the American Bible Society, and of its officers and auxiliaries. On this subject," continues he, "the Methodist Branch of the church has never borne an uncertain testimony, and may I not expect the Conference now in session in Raleigh to make special and grateful mention of the work of benevolence of the American Bible Society within its bounds, to urge its congregations to be more faithful and liberal in the duty of systematic giving for the supply of the word to our own people, and to the world, and to hold up the hands of the laborers in the field?"

RESOLVED, therefore, That we, the members of the N. C. Conference, cherishing active sympathy with, and a profound appreciation for, the grand work of the American Bible Society, will, during the ensuing year, raise, in our respective charges, collections to aid in the circulation of the Holy Scriptures.

Respectfully, M. C. THOMAS, Chairman.

Rev. L. L. Nash from Committee on Books and Periodicals submitted the following report:

THE MAJORITY REPORT.

Your Committee has had the important interest committed to it under prayerful consideration, and beg leave to submit the following report:

The importance to the Church and to society of a sound religious literature is a self evident fact. The power of the press is being felt for good or evil all over the land. Error in all its forms is being propagated by its instrumentality. Infidelity and corruption blacken humanity, and obstruct the work of the Church by the circulation of impure literature; and the exigencies of the times demand diligence and industry, on our part, in placing our books and papers in the hands of our people.

THE PUBLISHING HOUSE.

Resolved 1. That we rejoice at the continued prosperity of our Publishing House, at Nashville Tennessee, and heartily recommend its publications to our people. Among these publications we call especial attention, to the Nashville Christian Advocate, the General Organ of our Church, as a first class religious paper, that cannot be too highly endorsed, or too heartily recommended to the patronage of our people.

The Southern Quarterly Review, Edited by Dr. Hinton of Georgia, and published by a committee of the General Conference, is a first class review; and supplies the demand of our Ministers and people for that class of literature.

The Advocate of Missions, and the Woman's Missionary Advocate contain much valuable missionary intelligence and the low price at which they are offered to the Church, ought to secure for them a much larger circulation. Our Sunday School Literature is first class, and we recommend its use in all our Sunday Schools.

Resolved 2. That we heartily recommend the METHODIST ARMOR, written and published by Dr. H. T. Hudson, of our Conference, as a compendium of the doctrines and polity of our Church in every way worthy of our endorsement.

RALEIGH CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

Resolved 3. That the Raleigh Christian Advocate, merits the hearty endorsement of this Conference, and of the Methodist Church within our bounds.

Resolved 4. That we recommend its continuance as the Organ of the North Carolina Conference as heretofore, and pledge to it our sympathy and support.

Resolved 5. That we again reiterate our unqualified approval of the course of its editors in not allowing its columns to be made the medium of contention and discord.

Resolved 6. That the Bishop be requested to reappoint W. S. Black and F. L. Reid as Editors.

Respectfully submitted.

L. L. NASH, Chairman.
George T. SIMMONS, Sec't.

Rev. T. Page Ricard submitted the following minority report:

THE MINORITY REPORT.

A minority of your Committee on Books and Periodicals, desiring not to be bound by the action of the committee, and having given notice of such intention, beg leave to respectfully submit the following minority report—viz:

In so far as the committee have reported concerning the Nashville Advocate, Quarterly Review, Advocate of Missions; all our Sabbath School literature; all our standard works, and the METHODIST ARMOR, we agree with them, and accept this portion of their report as a part of this.

After agreeing with the committee as stated, we report:

We recommend that the Raleigh Christian Advocate, owned and published by Messrs. Black & Reid be endorsed, as the medium of official communication of the North Carolina Conference.

We congratulate the editors and proprietors of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, upon the improved appearance, enlarged size, and increased interest of the contents of their paper.

And believing that the paper is doing and seeking to do good, we recommend it to the patronage of our people, and hope and pray, that it may continue to improve, in merit and usefulness, in their hands, by the grace of God, to carry forward the one great and central idea of our Church, the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ on earth.

T. PAGE RICAUD,

Resolved 2. That it will always be a source of pleasure to us for him to visit us either at the Annual session of the Conference, at our District Conferences, or at any other time when the Providence of God shall open the way for him to return.

N. H. D. WILSON.

Rev. J. B. Alford submitted a report on Temperance, for which the following was offered as a substitute by Rev. N. A. Hooker, and adopted by the Conference:

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

Whereas, The traffic and use of intoxicating liquors, as a beverage, are among the most fruitful sources of degradation and suffering in our land; therefore,

Resolved 1. That all our preachers in their pulpit ministrations, official action, and private intercourse with the people, be requested to give special attention to the subject of temperance, as set forth in the 5th chapter of the late edition of the Discipline.

Resolved 2. That we invoke the earnest co-operation of all christian people in advancing the cause of temperance.

Resolved 3. That we cherish the hope of seeing, in the no distant future, our good citizens and residents fully aroused to the importance of using all laudable means in their power to check the appalling vice of intemperance.

N. A. HOOKER.

Rev. L. J. Holden of the Committee on Church Property read the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PROPERTY.

Your Committee on Church Property submit the following report:

The statistics show that in 1881 there were 817 churches, valued at $759,325.00; increase in number 21; increase in value $715. There are now 806 churches, valued at $832,933.00; decrease in number 11; increase in value $43,609. There were in 1881, 78 parsonages, valued at $97,375.00. There are now 89 parsonages, valued at $162,235.00; increase in number 11; increase in value, $4,861.

Your Committee find that a number of charges are without Parsonages, and we respectfully urge upon our people the importance of securing comfortable and convenient Parsonages on every Station, Circuit and District; then require the preachers to occupy them, and in case the preachers refuse to do so, then and in that case that the property be rented out, and the proceeds applied to improvements, or as the proper authorities may direct.

Your Committee find that in some instances our people have not been careful to follow the doctrines of the Discipline in securing Fee Simple deed to church property, so that the church can sell and make a good title whenever it is deemed best to dispose of such property. See Discipline ¶ 169, page 203, sec. 3.

The attention of your Committee having been called to the question of dividing parsonage property in case of division of circuits, we respectfully refer to Discipline ¶ 161-182, page 206, and we further recommend that all money raised for parsonages shall be reported and the several churches credited by their several amounts. So that in case of a sale or division each church shall receive its pro. rata share of the proceeds of such sale or division.

We beg leave to repeat the remark of Bishop Pierce that stoves in the churches were means of grace; therefore,

Resolved, That we respectfully urge our preachers and people to put stoves in our churches and make them comfortable.

L. J. HOLDEN, Chairman.

Rev. L. L. Nash presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the pastors be requested to take a collection for the Oxford Orphan Asylum at sometime during the Conference year.

JNO. R. BROOKS,
J. B. BOBBET,
L. L. HENDREN.

On motion of Rev. L. W. Crawford it was ordered that members of the Conference take up a collection in their charges in the month of May, for the benefit of Edenton St. Church, Raleigh.

The minutes were then read and approved.

After an affecting exhortation to the Conference, the Bishop announced the appointments.

Then, on motion of A. W. Mangum, the Conference adjourned sine die, the Bishop pronounced the benediction.

REV. WILLIAM CLOSS, D.P.

William Closs was born in Botetourt county, Va., in the year 1809, and died at the residence of his daughter in the village of Enfield, N. C., July 8, 1882.

In his early youth he had few religious advantages. His conversion was remarkable. He was unaccustomed to attend public worship; and his conviction was attributed by himself neither to any sermon nor to any special reading of the Scriptures, but to the irresistible influence of the Holy Spirit. Thus led to realize that he was a sinner, he sought the services of the church. When by faith he found the peace which passeth understanding, he received also a full assurance of his divine sonship. With this assurance there came a conviction of his call to preach the gospel—a call which he never doubted. This was the secret of his power. God was his strength.

He was received into the Virginia Conference during its session in Petersburg in 1833, and was identified with the N. C. Conference from its organization. For nearly fifty years he was an able and efficient preacher of the Gospel. For twenty-eight years he was Presiding Elder, and was several times elected to the General Conference: indeed his election to serve in that venerable body was regarded as a matter of course until he requested that his name be not voted for in the quadrennial choice of delegates.

He was a profound thinker, a learned theologian, a logical and incisive preacher. His sermons in substance and in structure were unique, compact, strong, oftentimes grandly eloquent, and always impressive.

Speaking of Dr. Closs's ability as a debater, Bishop Pierce said of him, "He has not an equal in the Southern church." As was truly said of him by another, "He was conscious of his strength, and therefore fearless of any odds. He did not float with the tide, but crossed it at a thousand points. He quailed not at the criticism of the present, conscious that the tribunal of the future would rectify all errors and justify his wisdom." His views on every question affecting the doctrines or the polity of his church were clear and positive. He never hesitated to defend his position. His arguments were clear and strong, often profound; and none knew better than he the power of wit; but his wit was never poisoned with personal rancor, and made no festering wounds in the hearts of his brethren; and he could yield when convinced.

In social intercourse he united in his conversation the vivacity and freshness of youth with the dignity of a strong manhood and the simplicity of childhood with the wisdom of age. Young and old listened alike with unbroken interest to his fireside and table talk, so full of information, so like a divine harmony with its undertone and overtone of gospel faith—so aptly freshened with pleasant anecdote.

In one respect, among many others, his conversation was remarkable. It was singularly pure. In a day when a talent for vulgar buffonery is too often the popular test of fitness for public office, William Closs remembered in every circle that he was a gentleman and a Christian. To his friends he was always faithful—always generous. He knew what it was to show a Christly sympathy for suffering. To his opponents we do not know that we could justly term any man his enemy—he was forgiving and magnanimous. A man of strong affections—loving his home, and delighting in the society of wife and children, he sacrificed in a large degree the comfort and happiness of home, that he might go and preach the gospel. As Presiding Elder, in the faithful discharge of laborious duty, he spent more than half his time—very often weeks and sometimes months together—away from his home. He was twice married; and the church mourns with his surviving wife and children.

William Closs made his mark upon the pages of the history of our church. He fought a good fight. He kept the faith. A crown of righteousness is surely his. We thank God that such a man lived and labored and died among us; and now that his noble spirit has ascended, we pray that the mantle of his power and usefulness may rest upon us!

REV. BENNETT T. BLAKE.

Rev. Bennett Taylor Blake, the oldest member of the N. C. Conference in years of successful service, was born in Southampton county, Va., January 3, 1800, and died at his residence in Wake county, N. C., May 28, 1882, in hope of a glorious immortality.

His parents were Ellis Gray Blake and Mary Taylor. His father removed from Boston, Mass., to Southampton county, Va., some time in the latter part of the last century. The family were lineal descendants of an ancestor who was closely related to the distinguished Robert Blake, the great English Admiral who rendered the name and powers of the English navy so illustrious in the annals of the commonwealth. It is still a large family, having representatives in many parts of the United States, from Boston to San Francisco. They have carefully kept their family records, and can trace their lineage from the ancestor that came to Massachusetts after the extinction of the commonwealth.

When Mr. Blake was eight years old, his parents removed to Petersburg, Va., where his mother died in 1811, and his father in 1815. He was engaged as a clerk in a large mercantile establishment in Petersburg until he entered the ranks of the itinerant ministry. His opportunities for education were about equal to those of the youth of his own age and times. He retained a fair knowledge of the Latin elements during life, but his tastes led him rather to the cultivation of polite literature. His religious education was entirely neglected, but by attending church he learned much about the catechisms of the Episcopal church, and its forms of worship. He attended the ministrations of other churches for the most part, but was thrown into associations that led him at times to hear the Methodist preachers that were stationed in Petersburg. In the year 1822, Hezekiah G. Leigh was stationed there, and by his zeal and eloquence, attracted large congregations. In a memorandum found among his papers, Mr. Blake says: "I had attended his ministry for some months. On one occasion he invited all persons who were concerned for their souls' salvation to meet him at the church building; on the afternoon of the next Wednesday. I was the only person that met him, and for the first time had conversation with a minister of the gospel. He spoke tenderly and kindly to me as a father would to his son seeking advice.

"There had been no apparent excitement until on Sunday evening after my interview, when the pastor invited all who wished to flee from the wrath to come, and be saved, to come and kneel at the altar for instruction and prayer. I rose immediately, went forward and kneeled. Soon the altar was crowded with weeping penitents. There followed a genuine revival, the first I had ever witnessed. For depth of penitential sorrow, and holy rejoicing among the young converts and old members, I have, after sixty years' experience, never seen its equal."

His conviction was deep, and his conversion genuine and thorough. As soon as he was converted, he began to exhort others to accept Jesus as their Savior and friend, exhibited great zeal in attending upon the services of the sanctuary, and earnestly availed himself of all the means of grace. Just at that time, in the absence of all the ministers of the city, he was called upon to perform a public ministration, which, with much diffidence and some fear, he did to the satisfaction of all. Thus was he pointed out, as if by a special providence, as one called to the work and office of a minister, by the choice of the people amongst whom he dwelt. He had already experienced some movings of the Holy Spirit in the direction of the sacred calling, but afraid, lest his zeal for others in his first emotion of gratitude to God for his own conversion might wrongfully lead him to intrude into the ministry, he shrank from undertaking so holy a task without further evidence of a divine call. He consulted with his friends, and especially with his pastor. At last he mentioned some of his doubts and reasons for hesitating, to his Presiding Elder—afterwards Bishop—Rev. John Early. In his characteristic style, Mr. Early replied, "Get your saddle-bags, young man; get your saddle-bag."

He was received on trial into the Virginia Conference in 1824; and from the beginning he was an acceptable, faithful, successful minister of the Gospel. Without detailing his successive appointments during the years of his effective ministry, it is sufficient to say that from the first he served important fields; and that in every department of work to which he was assigned in the order of Divine providence, he wrought wisely and well. As pastor, Presiding Elder, as delegate to the General Conferences of 1833 and 1844, and to the Conference at Louisville, which organized the M. E. Church, South; as agent for Greensboro College, and as a teacher; at all times, and in every enterprise, he was a workman that needed not to be ashamed, and showed himself approved of God.

He was twice married, and to the son of his old age who survives him, he leaves a precious legacy: the memory of a holy and useful life, and an untarnished name.

In the words of one who knew him long and intimately, "His long life was a benediction to his family, friends and church. * * * The influence of his life and labors as a preacher, an educator, a citizen and writer, will linger behind him, now that he is gone, like the echo of a sweet song in memory's halls, or like the perfume of the incense that clings to the walls of the temple after the white-robed priest has retired from the altar. 'Being dead he yet speaks,' and will continue to speak, long after the plow-share of time shall have leveled his grave, and the lapse of years shall leave no trace of his name on memory's page. We live in houses built by other hands. We are refreshed in the shade, and regaled by the fruit of trees that were planted before we were born. We share in the benefits of the labors, privations and sacrifices of the generations that have gone before us. Rev. Bennett T. Blake has made his contribution to the stock of moral forces and influences that are to work out stupendous results in the future. His work is done, and well done. He rests from his labors—his work shall follow him."

REV. BRAXTON CRAVEN, D.D., L. L. D.

The subject of this notice was born on the waters of the Deep River, Randolph county, N. C., Aug. 26th, 1822. In tender young life he was put out to kind but hard service in the family of Nathan Cox, a sturdy old Quaker farmer and miller, and many an hour of hard labor was borne by young Craven while in the service of Mr. Cox. Showing even in these tender years the index of a coming manhood, pluck and bravery. His employer saw that he worked hard, but gave him wholesome advice and some privileges. Converted to God while yet in early youth, under the ministry of Colin Murchison, and at once showed the movings of the spirit in the direction of a call to the ministry. Taught school in the vicinity of his employer; gave good satisfaction and was complimented by his patrons.

About the first part of the year of 1840 he attended the Quaker school at New Garden, Guilford county, N. C., being allowed to do so upon condition that he would conform to their style of dress. He entered Union Institute, now Trinity College, in November of the same year as pupil and assistant teacher, under Rev. Brantly York, remained until the spring of 1842. York then leaving, Braxton Craven became the principal. In 1849, by invitation and solicitation, he went to Randolph Macon College, stood a rigid and successful examination on the whole course with the seniors, and it is said did not fail on a single question. The College gave him the degree of A. B. In 1851, the University of N. C. gave him the degree of A. M., Andrew College, Tenn., the honorary degree of D. D., and the University of Missouri, that of LL. D.

Licensed to preach in 1849, only a week or two before he went to Trinity, at Poplar Spring Church, now on the Jonesboro Circuit; ordained Deacon at Louisburg, by Bishop Capers in 1852; Elder at Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 1856 by Bishop Early; joined this body—the N. C. Conference—in 1857, at Goldsboro, N. C. Was married to Miss Irene Leach, eldest daughter of James Leach, of Randolph county, N. C., Sept. 25th, 1844, by Rev. W. S. Chaffin.

He leaves a widow and four children—two sons and two daughters. All of his active life was spent at the place where he fell at the post of duty, with the exception of the years 1864-65, when he was stationed at Edenton Street Church in the city of Raleigh. From this church he was returned to Trinity College, in the latter part of 1865. From that date to the hour of his death, Dec. 7th, 1882, he continued to work on the daring scheme of his life—Trinity College—and for its welfare and success he gave his all of work and substance. It stands now his best monument, every brick in its walls will speak to the beholder of his might and undying energy. What a vacuum his death has made in the educational and moral forces of this Commonwealth and of the whole country! While we mourn his loss, and let fall our tears over his grave, may the baptism of tears renew our energies and might, to go forward and complete what he so proudly and heroically set forward on a career of blessing, and make Trinity's fame and glory lasting as that of its illustrious founder and builder.

REV. THOMAS A. COON.

Rev. Thos. A. Coon was born in Alexander county, Sept. 11th, 1842; was converted October, 1866; was licensed to preach October 10th, 1870; joined Conference as a probationer at Fayetteville in 1872; was ordained deacon by Bishop Marvin at the Conference in Raleigh in 1874; was ordained Elder by Bishop Kavanaugh at the Conference in Greensboro in '76; died triumphantly at Mocksville, Nov. 23th, 1881, leaving a wife and three children to mourn his loss.

Brother Coon first traveled the S. Fredell (now Mooresville) circuit as a supply in 1872. At the following conference he was received on trial and appointed to the same charge the three following years; the next four years he filled Stateville Station. At the expiration of the full pastoral term he was appointed to the Mocksville Circuit, from which, after two years of labor, embracing several months of feebleness and suffering, he was called to his reward.

As a man, physically, he was of slender, delicate mould—unable long to endure the rough, trying experience of practical life. Notwithstanding his fragility of body, he did not shrink from assiduous intellectual application or the arduous duties of the itinerant ministry. With earnest devotion his pure noble spirit yielded its feeble instrument till it fell shattered in the midst of labors and responsibilities.

Intellectually, he was richly endowed. He combined in harmonious measure and even balance the purely intellectual, sternly practical and beautifully poetic elements that constitute a truly spherical being. He could think accurately, consecutively, profoundly,—reason logically, clothe his thoughts in the most beautiful diction, construct his discourse according to the most perfect grammatical precision apparently without effort—while perfectly free from self-consciousness and pedantry. In manner he was as simple and unaffected as a child. Socially, he was as gentle, amiable and sympathetic as a woman. He was guileless. He thought evil of no one; was never acrid, morose, or censorious. He contradicted no one—clashed with no one—wounded no one. There was no venom on his tongue or caustic on his pen. In conversation he indulged in no dubious or hurtful jests, uttered no flippant words, cherished or expressed no impure sentiment. The atmosphere of his social life was fragrant as the aroma of the vernal morn—pure as the breath of heaven. An angel could have moved about his pathway without having his thoughts corrupted or soiling his celestial garments. Spiritually, he walked on a high plane, and lifted his head in a cloudless sky. His apprehension of Christ was clear—his appropriation of his merits free and hearty—his consciousness of Divine love deep and abiding—his consecration unreserved, entire, and irrevocable. It was a living sacrifice, and the Lord sanctified the offering. In his experience was summarized the law and in his life was its expression. "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart; and thy neighbor as thyself," was in him a living consciousness, and found concreted in fellowship with his kind. There was no offensive egotism about him. He did not "think of himself more highly than he ought to think." His opinion of himself was humble—hardly as exalted as it should be in order to safe self-assertion. Yet, this was not from want of individuality or solid and profound convictions, but from unselfishness and whole-souled generosity. It was that ingenious, free spirit of altruism which views and loves the interests of others, and sacrifices on the altar of the public good. As was said of his Master, so might it be said of him: "He saved others—himself he can not save." Hence, when he saw his health failing, he sought no change, but passively submitted to labor and suffer on.

Bro. Coon's type of religion was Johnian. He might fitly be called the beloved disciple because of the trustfulness and sweet simplicity of his spiritual life. There was nothing noisily conspicuous or demonstrative in his religious profession or exercise, but the calmness of perfect trust, and the gentleness of perfect love. His spirit was like the placid lake that slumbers in the storm, reflecting as a mirror every image around and about it. He mirrored forth the lineaments of his Lord from every side of his beautifully developed life. So clear and unmistakable was the evidence that no one ever questioned his integrity or entertained the shadow of a doubt regarding his piety. As a preacher and co-worker with his Lord, he was far above ordinary. Wherever he wrought, fruits followed. Spiritual in his ministry, loving in his pastorate, patient and zealous in labors, both circuit and station immediately began upward and onward movement. True to vows, the Lord honored and blessed his ministry. In the great day of eternity, many will be the stars that will shine resplendent in his crown of rejoicing. But his work among us is done. The sword of a worthy captain has fallen from the nerveless hand, and his shout of onset has died among the advancing hosts, but among the redeemed he wears heavenly vestments, and with his Lord he sits crowned. He rests from his labors—his works follow him.

Raleigh, Dec. 11th, 1882.

REV. WILLIAM M. JORDAN.

Rev. Wm. M. Jordan was born in Goochland county, Va., April 5th, 1813, and died in Roxboro, N. C., Feb. 25th, 1882. Some time in the summer of 1830, being then in his 17th year, he, in company with a friend, visited a Sunday School which had been organized by two christian women, in a small log cabin, into which a few of the children of the neighborhood had been gathered. On this, the occasion of his first visit, he received the truth with such vividness of his lost condition, that it led him with a broken and contrite heart to the Mercy Seat, seeking peace and pursuing it, until he found the pearl of great price. While alone with God in his chamber, in the darkness and silence of the night, he felt the cleansing blood of Jesus Christ, and rejoiced in the consciousness of pardon and acceptance with God. His visit to this Sunday School was, in the sight of man, a trivial affair, but it changed the current of his life—turning him from hell's destructive way into the path of honor, glory and immortality.

In the February of 1833 he joined the Va. Conference at Petersburg; was ordained deacon by Bishop Morris in 1836, and an elder in 1838 by Bishop Hedding. On September 27th, 1841, he was married to Miss Ann E. Page, to whose christian devotedness he was largely indebted for his success in the ministry.

Bro. Jordan was in the itinerant work forty-nine years without a hiatus, but at the session of the N. C. Conference held at Durham, in 1881, being conscious that his work was nearly done, he quietly lay aside his well-used armor as a soldier of Christ, and asked for the relation of a superannuate. He was a true man—one who loved the truth, feared God, and worked righteousness. His preaching was unimpassioned, but the matter of his sermons indicated hard study and careful preparation. In doctrine he was thoroughly Methodist, and in the execution of his work as a pastor he was faithful and fearless—not being afraid to use the pruning knife upon offending members, which he always did in tenderness but with firmness. In his natural disposition he was gentle and full of sympathy, and in his manners unobtrusive. He was free from selfishness, and no one ever thought of him, as a seeker of place or power. He accepted his appointments without murmuring, with an unflinching faith in God, and did his work well. Of him it may be truly said, that he "served his generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers." Brother William M. Jordan has gone from among us to be with Christ the Lord forever. He is among the wise, who shall shine as the brightness of the firmament—and having turned many to righteousness, he "is as the stars forever and ever."

REV. SAMUEL B. DOZIER.

Rev. Samuel B. Dozier was received into the N. C. Conference at its session in 1853; labored faithfully and effectively as an itinerant preacher for several years, when failing health compelled him to have his name enrolled upon the superannuated list of the Conference, and died at his home in Lenoir county, N. C., in May, 1882.

In the day of his activity he showed himself a zealous, evangelical preacher, and a man of pure and gentle spirit; and though the years of his ministry were few, we are assured that he did not live in vain. For many years the hand of affliction had been laid heavily upon him. A wreck in mind and body—suffering greatly from ever recurring pain and mental depression—denied all social pleasure by reason of his infirmity—in patience uncomplaining he waited the time of his release. When he had apparently forgotten all other names and faces, save the name and face of the devoted wife who watched over him with untiring love, there was yet a brightening of his face, a quivering of his lips, a benighting of tears in his eyes when the name of Jesus was mentioned that made it manifest that he knew and loved that precious name. When he could not speak of other things, he could yet utter words that told his faith in Christ, and his hope of glory. When incapable of leading the devotions of his household, he would still unite with fervent Amens in the prayers that were offered in his chamber.

By disease bereft of reason, he seemed to manifest his divinely-given faith almost as long as he retained his consciousness; and he was evidently a marvel of grace—a man wise unto salvation. Death to him was but the touch of the Divine hand, healing the infirmity that had preyed upon his mind and body through so many weary years. By faith we may see him now, within the veil, sitting at the feet of Jesus, “clothed and in his right mind;” or anon worshipping with the Apocalyptic throng, and saying—“Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power and might be unto our God forever and ever, Amen.” And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, “What are these which are arrayed in white robes, and whence came they?” And I said unto him, “Sir, thou knowest.” And he said unto me, “These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.” “Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple; and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.”

REV. J. RANDOLPH FINLEY, D.D.

Rev. J. Randolph Finley, D.D., though nominally a local preacher, had been serving as a supply on several important fields in our bounds. He died suddenly in Warren county while on a visit to friends in July, 1882. Dr. Finley was born in Baltimore in 1810. He enjoyed the advantages of high literary culture, and entered the Baltimore Conference while a young man. We regret our inability to give a fuller history of his life. He, however, served the church in various fields, and was for a time a member of the Kentucky Conference; also of the Tennessee. For several years he was President of a Female College in Tenn. He subsequently became a member of the Va. Conference, filled important stations, and served as Presiding Elder. He was afterward chosen pastor of an Independent Methodist Church in Baltimore. From this he was called to labor for the Maryland Tract Society. To this he devoted his best energies and with success. It did not, however, suit his taste. He resigned and took the work from which he was so suddenly called.

Dr. Finley was a cultured christian, of attractive person and manners, and a preacher of decided ability; a devoted and faithful servant of God and his church. He was doubtless ready for the call to depart. It is due to his memory that we should bear this testimony.

Hence, the impossibility of printing the Financial Reports in the Minutes by churches, as may have been expected.

By the assistance of Dr. Hudson and Revs. A. R. Raven and B. R. Hall, we have footed up the tables and given the sum total, as heretofore.
